Manager -Natalie DiBerardinis

Hilltop Farm, a 425 acre facility in northern Cecil County, is one of the leading sport horse centers in North America. Jane McElree purchased the property in 1989 and officially opened the farm in September of 1991. Described as the complete sport horse center, Hilltop Farm focuses on all stages of breeding, raising, and training horses and is home to multiple National Champions. Along with a dedicated staff, Jane has built Hilltop's excellent reputation and established their position as an industry leader.

Hilltop Farm is also a leader in a comprehensive conservation with a well-managed array of best management practices. The suite of practices implemented on the farm include a waste storage facility and heavy use protection areas. The farm features a pasture and utilizes grazing management with over 20 watering facilities. Jane has also installed a pond and stream buffers. Hilltop Farm has carefully blended sustainable land management with aesthetics to a beautiful setting and quality service.
